2.5 Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 Mechanism of internal/ external assessment is transparent and the grievance redressal system is time- bound and efficient

Answer:

Evaluation is an integral part of teaching-learning process. University guidelines are strictly adhered to with respect to evaluation process. The college also follows the modalities of conducting the continuous internal evaluation (CIE) as prescribed by Pt. Ravishankar shukla University, Raipur, Chhattisgarh.

The college prepares academic calendar by including internal assessment, and the university examination. The institutional internal evaluation system is decentralized in order to make it more transparent and objective.

A Standard operating procedure has been in practice for the conduct of various internal examinations. In order to ensure transparency in internal assessment, the system of internal assessment is communicated with the students well in time.

The examination cell performs following functions to maintain transparency and robustness of examination procedure:-

Time table and topics for examination are displayed on the notice board and Whatsapp adequately in advance. Question papers for all tests and assignment are linked with course outcomes (COs). For internal examination, syllabus is declared by subject teacher and semester end examination is conducted on entire syllabus. The question papers are verified to eliminate errors and after moderation handed over to the examination in charge. Supervision duty chart is drafted and informed to teachers. Attendance of students is maintained properly during examination.

The progress and performance of the students are monitored by their performance in attendance, class tests, assignments, study projects and internal assessment examinations. The students are given valued answer scripts for their perusal to make them aware of the errors and to satisfy themselves about the valuation. Then the marks are entered in the register. This also gives an opportunity for the students to perform better and become competent learners. The internal complaint cell addresses the grievances and all the grievances are promptly attended. The results are monitored by the HODs of respective departments.

Apart from university prescribed methods like assignments and tutorials, more relevant methods such as mid-term examinations, power point presentations, project work etc. are experimented in the internal assessment. As per the academic calendar, tentative schedule is prepared and displayed on the notice board, website and on the WhatsApp group of the classes

External Assessment

Theory or Practical examinations are conducted by Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University (PRSU). The marks allocated for each subjects are as per the syllabus structure. PRSU prepares and shares examination schedules to affiliated colleges.

To maintain transparency in the Practical Examination University appoints external examiner. In association with external examiner, internal examiner conducts Practical examination. Affiliating university appoints flying squad to monitor and to prevent use of unfair means in the examination.

Mechanism to deal with Internal Examination Related Grievances:

The institute has a well-organized mechanism for redressal of examination related grievances. The student can approach the subject teachers to redress the examination related grievance. If a student is not able to appear for examination due to medical or any genuine reason, he/she can give the examination later as per norms of the institute, provided that he/she submits application with proper documents.

2.6 Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 Programme Outcomes (POs) and Course Outcomes (COs) for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website

Answer:

The institution follows the curriculum prescribed by Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur. The expected learning outcomes are identified and stated taking into account the institutional vision and mission as well.

After completion of the admission process, the syllabus and curriculum are provided to the students. Hard and soft copy of syllabi and learning outcomes are available in the respective departments, college website for teachers and students. Learning Outcomes of the Programs and Courses are displayed on the notice board at the beginning of the academic session. These delineate the knowledge and skills that a student should possess upon completion of the programme. Every year examination results display outstanding performance of students of this institution, who largely occupy the merit positions in the University Merit List.

Department meetings with Principal and IQAC are held at the beginning of the academic session to discuss the teaching plans and course outcomes specified for the courses. POs, PSOs and COs are also displayed on the college notice board for the perusal of all stakeholders. Also, Evaluation and attainment of POs, PSOs and COs are reviewed in the department meetings with the Principal at the end of every session.

Some faculty members are members in Board of Studies (BOS) at the university level thus contributing to discussions on programmes and course outcomes. Faculty members are taught to design assessments that go in tandem with Programme Outcomes and to map the Course Outcomes with Programme Outcomes.

Course Outcomes: A course objective describes what a faculty member will cover in a course. They are generally less broad than desirable goals and broader than student learning outcomes. The course outcome is a detailed description of what a student must be able to do at the conclusion of a course. The course outcomes help the stakeholders to manage the resources effectively to the maximum extent.

Programme Outcomes: The work put into establishing the vision, purpose, and goals of the program should help provide direction for creating program outcomes. Basically, it is necessary to take those goals and translate them into tangible, 'measurable' outcome statements. For every degree programme, expectations are listed out by the institution under the Program Outcomes. This enables the stakeholders to identify and analyze complex problems. They also learn to design solutions for problems that meet the specified needs with appropriate consideration for the cultural, societal and environmental well-being.

Program Specific Outcomes: The outcomes which are specific to a program are identified and stated. The PSOs are defined, explained and stated and are displayed along with COs and POs. For each program offered by the college, a unique set of learning outcomes have been defined. These are linked to the broad programme outcomes. Following effective pedagogic strategies, the faculty articulates the learning objectives and expected outcomes for each programme. This enables the students to understand the Program Specific Outcomes and achieve the outcome.

2.6.2 Attainment of POs and COs are evaluated.

Explain with evidence in a maximum of 500 words

Answer:

Course outcomes of various papers taught during the course are continuously being evaluated based on various parameters such as for skill building, enhancement of conceptual understanding and experiential and fieldwork learning. The Department of Sports keenly observes the performance of students in sports. Performance of students in extra-curricular activities is observed by the teachers in-charge of various committees. The departments track the number of students who successfully pass the academic programme and gain employment or progress further for higher studies. Continuous assessment provides feedback for the efficacy of the teaching-learning process and learning outcomes of each course.

Course Outcomes: The course outcomes help the stakeholders to manage the resources effectively to the maximum extent. The attainment of course outcomes is demonstrated through seminars, communication skill programmes, assignments, projects, fieldwork etc. The course outcomes are directly evaluated on the basis of internal and external examination results.

Programme Outcomes: The program outcomes are assessed by examinations; annual and end semester, assignments, projects, viva, seminars etc., student progression and employer & alumni feedbacks. Each question paper prepared for an exam will be mapped to one or more COs which effectively will help to determine the achievement by each students in the exams.

Every question is mapped to a CO and every CO is mapped to a PO. Similarly, in each assessment methods, the final results and conclusions are used in arriving at how much the students have attained the COs & POs.

The stakeholders learn to design solutions for problems that meet the specified needs with appropriate consideration for the cultural, societal and environmental well-being. They apply reasoning and understand the impact of the solutions in societal and environmental context. They learn to apply ethical principles and become committed to professional ethics and their responsibilities. They understand the importance of critical thinking, social interaction, effective citizenship, environmental ethics and sustainability. Ultimately, they acquire the ability to engage in independent and life-long learning.

Programme Specific Outcomes: The institution evaluates the stakeholders as University Rank Holders, students representing college at University, National, International Sports events, curricular and extracurricular activities at various platforms. They are recognized and awarded during the Annual Day function by giving them certificates, mementos. The program outcomes and program specific outcomes are measured by conducting three Unit test, half yearly exam and pre-final examination as per Academic Calendar released by the Directorate of Higher Education and the affiliating university.

1. The PO's are also evaluated through upgradation of students in higher studies and are motivated to prepare for competitive examinations.
2. Another parameter for the evaluation of PO's is the social inclusiveness of various extension programmes.

Primarily institution receives fund from various sources, like the state government (for Infrastructure, books, furniture, laboratory, salary and etc), fund from fee collection (college development fund, library, sports, etc), and donations. College also receives fund from UGC, RUSA, JBS and SELF FINANCE COMMITTEE. For the proper utilization of resources budget is prepared in the beginning of every new session based on budget provisions made by state government. is carried out by hiring a chartered accountant every year, and it is update until 2022.

Like every Higher Education Institute, this college has structured optimal utilization and mobilization process of fund. DDO gets funds from various resources and asks various committees (Sports, Library, hod's) for the needed articles, distributes funds accordingly. And then follows the Chhattisgarh Store Purchase Rule and purchase procedure. The purchase committee of the college demands quotations and tenders from various vendors and makes comparative studies of tenders, then gives a suggestion to the principal for purchase order with terms and conditions and finally College Principal give order and pays through the treasury or cheque.

7.2 Best Practices

7.2.1 Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual

Answer:

1st Best Practice

1. Title - Effort to develop clean and green campus with sustainable management.

2. Objectives-

At Government MahaprabhuVallabhachairya PG College in Mahasamund, we strive to provide a learning environment that emphasises compassion and ethical behaviour. In the spirit of Mahatma Gandhi, who coined the phrase "cleanliness is Godliness" and our honourable Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who launched the "Swachh Bharat Abhiyan" inspired by Mahatma Gandhi, the institution should play a significant role in acting as a community to meet the needs of society. To promote a sustainable and eco-friendly environment, our college started the green campus programme.

3. The context

The college's students and faculty are aware of how to safeguard the environment by using less single-use plastics, paper and cloth bags as alternatives to plastics, and taking part in environmental programmes. The fundamental goal of the Green Campus with sustainable development initiative is to guarantee that there will be enough water and other resources for upcoming generations. However, to maximize its effectiveness, the primary challenge is to successfully implement education for sustainable development. The appropriate balance of economic, social, and environmental factors should be taken into account and maintained for any new development.

4. The Practice

Our college has supported numerous initiatives that aim to save the environment and preserve its natural resources. Despite the fact that it is technically prohibited, the college keeps a green garden and annually plants fresh trees. Our college initiated to making “Seeds Balls” which is great approach for growing plants in unexpected places. Seed Balls can be thrown into the garden or anywhere we like when it rains the water should get into the Balls and the Seeds will germinate and creating new plants. Vermicomposting has been used by the college to solve its waste disposal issue. From the solid waste the college canteen produces, vermi-composting pits are utilised to create compost for college landscaping.

5. Evidence of Success

Tree planting marked the start of the green campus effort. Up-to 2000 trees have been planted in our college's campus, which is a significant accomplishment. A floral, ornamental, and medicinal plant section has also been constructed in our college's botanical garden. It is really impressive and successful that so many students participate in the various awareness campaigns our college sponsors. From this efforts, our College is the recipient of “GREEN CHAMPION AWARD” issued by Mahatma Gandhi National Council for Rural Education, Department of Higher Education, and Govt. Of India. The award has been given for generating and maintaining greenery in the college campus. Asst. Professor Saraswati Seth has gone under five day faculty development program organized by MGNCRE and she has been appointed as “District Sustainability Mentor” for promoting Sustainability in college campus and nearby villages of Mahasamund district for few months.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

The creation and upkeep of appropriate infrastructure for environmentally friendly operations is the key issue facing the green campus effort. Our continuing environmental endeavours have been negatively impacted by the coronavirus pandemic. A succession of awareness programmes are required to educate and prepare more individuals for the implementation of green practises. Becoming green requires not only financial investment, but also a strong commitment from all the beneficiaries to be successful and praiseworthy.

Best Practice 2

1. Title: "Encouraging Girls' Education".

2. Objectives

Through community mobilization, our college works additional focused on to develop an good educational system for girl's students that will increase access and encourage enrollment in higher education for the residents of Mahasamund's district economically and socially underdeveloped rural areas. Support and support females who wish to pursue higher education so that they can become independent thinkers and self-learners, acquire the knowledge and skills necessary for their lives and careers.

3. The context

One of the most crucial elements for the development of one's social and autonomous self is education. Girls who acquire an education are more likely to lead healthy, fulfilling lives and are less likely to marry early. They create better futures for themselves and their family, earn higher wages, and take part in decisions that most directly affect them. Our college goes above and above to give female students the greatest possible educational opportunity.

4. The Practice

Our college abides by government initiatives for girls' education, including "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao," the National Scheme and Family Welfare's programme to encourage adolescent girls in rural areas to practise good menstrual hygiene, among others. We also conduct CG government scheme “Padhai Tuhar Dwar” in Covid-19 Pandemic duration to overcome the loss of education. The females who are denied regular entry due to a lack of seats are given the additional support of being allowed to attend the class with a special permit. Our college continuously organised skill development programs especially for girl's students. The majority of the female students were from working- and middle-class farming families. Our organization follows the "Beti Bachao Beti Padhao Abhiyan" in this way. Institution strictly adheres to its vision and mission Vidya Dharmen Shobhate” which means education allied with piety and righteousness is sublime. In due course of time the vision and mission of the college evolved into its distinctive feature which is Educational excellence with social consciousness.

Academic excellence is evident from shining result. Every year our college students are listed in University merit list. Pt. From this college 07 students have successfully completed their Ph.D. from the research center of the college and 11 students are currently pursuing their Ph.D. in different research area. Whereas 05 professors from different streams of the college are registered as a research guide and are guiding their Ph.D. scholars.

In order to create ideal research environment, the college has formed Research Development Cell (RDC). The RDC encourages college faculty and students to take up research activities by utilizing their inherent skills. It also offers valuable assistance to college students and faculty member in writing and publishing their research paper, and preparing project proposal. Research activity helps to create research culture among faculty members and students; as a result college has successfully conducted 02 National Seminars and numerous webinars.

NSS, NCC & YRC wings of the college play a crucial role in combining sense of social responsibility with educational excellence of the college. During the adverse times of COVID 19 pandemic college students under the banner of NSS compromised their life and safety to serve the need of society by arranging groceries, sanitizers, mask and other needful stuffs to the people in need. Students even imparted their duties in quarantine and vaccination centers. Due to all these efforts NSS Boys Unit received best NSS unit of the Chhattisgarh state, thus reflecting the social consciousness through their action. Imprints of educational excellence and social consciousness are clearly reflected in acts and deeds of college alumni. College alumni Martyr Mahendra Dhruw (Sub. Inspector C.G Police) and Faneshwar Sinha (G.D SEPAHI in C.G Police) sacrificed their life while battling with Naxalites in the dense forests of Chhattisgarh border. To mention current M.L.A and Parliamentary Secretary Shri Vinod Chandrakar is 2005 passed out student of our college. Number of college students has been qualified from Govt. and Non Govt. agencies and are imparting their services in various fields of the society and making the college feel proud of them.

Environmental depletion is the biggest social challenge in the contemporary society. Our College is two times recipient of GREEN CHAMPION AWARD issued by Mahatma Gandhi National Council for Rural Education, Department of Higher Education, and Govt. Of India. The award has been given for generating and maintaining greenery in the college campus.

Asst. Professor Saraswati Seth has gone under five day faculty development program organized by MGNCRE and she has been appointed as District Sustainability Mentor for promoting Sustainability in college campus and nearby villages of Mahasamund district for few months.

Institution gives outmost importance to social consciousness and thus it strictly follows all rules and regulation which promotes social equality. The Mahasamund region is a land of under-privileged section of the society such as SC, ST OBC and Female. The enrollment of SC, ST, and OBC category student are higher in proportion to the general category student's which ensures participation of challenged section of society is more in college admission. The college is known for having high proportion of female students enrolled. Our institution adheres to the "BetiBachao, BetiPadhaoAbhiyan" in this approach. The number of female students enrolled now is rising yearly and is also reflected in university merit lists, which is clearly shows the sign of women empowerment.
